EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

David W. Pijor is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of FVCbank, with offices in Virginia, Washington, DC and Maryland. Mr. Pijor was the founder and lead organizer of the Bank, which opened its doors on November 27, 2007. FVCbank is a $2 billion commercial bank which serves small to mid-sized business and commercial clients within its various geographic markets and focuses on providing credit and cash management products to government contractors, not for profit organizations and professional service firms, among other industry segments. FVCbank trades on NASDAQ (FVCB) and is part of the Russell 2000 Index.

On October 19, 2012, FVCbank acquired 1st Commonwealth Bank of Virginia in an all stock transaction, marking its first acquisition. With this acquisition, FVCbank gained $48 million in loans and $54 million in deposits, as well as 1st Commonwealth's former banking office located at 2500 Wilson Boulevard in Arlington, Virginia. In October 2019, FVCbank acquired Colombo Bank, a $190 million bank. With this acquisition, FVCbank expanded its branch footprint into Washington, DC and Maryland, with four branches as well as a loan production office in Baltimore County, Maryland.

Prior to the organization of FVCbank, Mr. Pijor was the lead organizer of James Monroe Bank ("JMB"). From June 8, 1998 until its sale to Mercantile Bancshares in May 2006, Mr. Pijor served as the Chairman of its Board of Directors and General Counsel and, along with its President, guided its meteoric growth. During that eight year period, the Bank grew to over $640 million in total assets and generated total returns of over 10x to its initial shareholders. Mr. Pijor was instrumental in leading the effort to sell the bank in 2006.

Prior to assuming the role of Chief Executive Officer of FVCbank, Mr. Pijor was a practicing attorney with offices in Fairfax, Virginia. During his 30 plus years in practice, Mr. Pijor focused on business law and transactions with an emphasis on taxation. He also developed an estate and tax planning practice.

Mr. Pijor graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts with Honors in Economics with High Distinction and Georgetown University Law Center with a Juris Doctor degree. He lives in Maryland with his wife, Kathleen, and three of their five children.
