About Alex

Alexander Brown Jr. is a Native Islander whose family history on Hilton Head Island stretches back over seven generations. For the past 30 years, he has made his career at Resort Retail Associates, where he is the Vice-President of Operations. His drive and passion, however, come from the tireless work that he has been doing to sustain Hilton Head Island as a beloved community. His community involvement has included service as Chair of Hilton Head Island's Planning Commission, Treasurer of the Martin Luther King Celebration Planning Committee, Member of the Town of Hilton Head Island Vision Project Management Team, and Chair of the Greater Island Council Vision Steering Committee. Alex is very active in the native island community and its issues, and he is currently Chair of the IW Wilborn Scholarship Committee, Trustee and Youth Leader at Central Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church, and Assistant Boys Varsity Basketball Coach at Hilton Head High School.
