

Morris Peacock

Hinton Burdick CPA's &
Advisors

Kris Braunberger

“Recent Tax Changes that Contractors Can Benefit From”

Auditorium - 1:50 pm – 2:40 pm

In 2020, Congress passed new legislation which creates opportunities for tax savings and provides benefits, which all contractors and construction companies should know about.

Morris J. Peacock, graduated Magna Cum Laude receiving Bachelor of Arts and Master of Accountancy degrees from Southern Utah University. His academic achievements placed him on the Dean's List and earned membership in Phi Theta Kappa. Mr. Peacock has had extensive experience in the following areas: Audited Financial Statements, Compliance Audits (Single Audits), Compiled and Reviewed Financial Statements, Personal Financial Statements, Forecasted/Projected Financial Statements, Computer System Design, Installation and Training, and Corporate, Partnership and Individual Tax Returns.*

Kris Braunberger graduated from the University of Utah, previously worked for KPMG Peat Marwick, and has worked for HintonBurdick CPAs & Advisors for the past 27 years. His area of focus is business taxation, construction, and real estate development. He routinely lectures for Southern Utah Home Builders Association, Dixie State University, and the Utah Home Builders Association teaching accounting, business startup, payroll and tax law. He is currently serving as his firm's Tax Committee Chairman.*