

We Crave

Reflective Education on Addiction

Free and Open to All!

We Crave is a comprehensive educational and inspirational series on the topic of opioid (and other) addictions. The series presents information in a reflective setting that includes videos, images and music to provide both an educational and transformational experience.

The series is free and open to all, including those who are suffering from addiction, their loved ones, any anyone who would like to learn more. We Crave will be offered monthly through September, beginning in June. Each course includes four two-hour sessions (biology, psychology, sociology and spirituality). You can attend the entire series or individual sessions.

CEs are available for professionals, the National Association of Social Workers (PA-NASW), and Municipal Police Officers' Education and Training Commission (MPOETC). In order to receive CEs, you must participate in a total of four sessions, representing each of the topics. Fees apply for CEs.

The August and September session dates are:

August 26, 27, 28, 29, 1:00 - 3:00 pm, with the exception of August 27, 5:30 - 7:30 pm
September 3, 4, 5, 6, 1:00 - 3:00 pm, with the exception of September 4, 5:30 - 7:30 pm

For more information or to register, contact Genie Watson, (610) 433-6421 ext. 6422 or gwatson@lehighchurches.org

Download the August flyer here.

About the Facilitator

Nina Marie Corona, M.A. C.R.S. is an author and facilitator of We Crave. She is currently pursuing a Doctorate of Ministry at Fordham University and possesses a Master of Arts in Spirituality from Loyola University Chicago. Nina also obtained an education certification in alcohol and drug counseling from Villanova University, and she is a Pennsylvania Board Certified Recovery Specialist.